11. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Called Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and inquired as to whether the Agency's bill to amend CIARDS, H. R. 11088, will have to be reported out by 15 May 1976 under the provisions of the Budget Reform Act, since it contains an authorization to fund CIARDS directly from the Treasury. Hogan indicated he had not given the matter any consideration, however, he felt certain that the deadline would apply and he will discuss this with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, to see what can be done.

15. [REDACTED] LIAISON I received a call from Maxine Cheshire, of the Washington Post, who said she had just talked to Angus Thuermer, Assistant to the Director, and Robert Mills, of Senator William Proxmire's (D., Wisc.) office. She then repeated what I had told Mills and asked if I knew where the Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of State, rug was located. I suggested that she call the State Department, as I had no idea. She then asked about the rug that was given to the Ambassador in Tehran and I again said she should check with State. She asked if I knew who the donor was and I said I had no idea. She insisted that I should have known it was Barzani. I explained that I was a legislative liaison officer and was not aware of details and if she wanted any further information from the Agency on this matter, she should check with Angus Thuermer. The foregoing was reported to Thuermer and John Waller, Assistant to the DDO, who suggested that

13.  LEGISLATION Received a call from Gil Kulick, INR/State Department, who wanted to know our plans for dealing with S. Res. 400. I told him we had prepared a letter to Senator Howard Cannon (D., Nev.), Chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, on which INR would probably be asked for comments by OMB, and that we hoped Mr. Bush would be able to testify during the 31 March hearings. Kulick said the Director of INR had also considered testifying, but that Kulick doubted he would if Mr. Bush testified.
